
From: Brett Loper <brloper@hotmail.com>
Sent: Sunday, April 16, 2017 9:15 PM
To: zzMSHA-Standards - Comments to Fed Reg Group
Subject: Workplace Rules Comments

As a small mine owner, I believe that the existing rules are adequate to provide a safe environment for my employees. I also believe that MSHA should put more emphasis on the State Grants Program instead of thicker rule books. Affordable training by qualified professional instructors will go farther to reduce accidents in small mines than piling more paperwork onto us. Thank you for considering my comments, Brett R. Loper, President, Stein Enterprises, Inc. Grants Pass, Oregon