Subject: Respirable Silica (quartz) Proposed Rule

The FR Notice indicates that ‘...MSHA is aware that in 2015, ANSI updated the Z88.2 standard.[36] A copy of the 2015 ANSI standard is in the docket and MSHA seeks comment on this updated standard.’”

I see reference to the document in the docket but there is no document posted there. Would you please either correct me if I am mistaken, update the docket and/or provide me with a link to the correct document so that I may review and evaluate it for possible comment.

Thank you!
