General Comment

1. Does the proposed rule apply to contractors operating mobile equipment and power haulage equipment at a mine or just operators?
2. Does the proposed rule apply to an operator of a mine that is in non-producing status and in reclamation mode if it employs over 6 employees and utilizing surface mobile equipment?
3. Will MSHA provide a written safety program for mobile and power haulage equipment template to be completed and filed by operators on the MSHA website?

Thank you.
